

PTA Nominations for 2010-2011

Amy Coble

Nominee, Vice-President of Communications

Amy Coble has been very involved in the PTA since 2008. During the PTA's first year, Amy helped create the online newsletter currently in use. In 2009 Amy helped launch and maintain the initial release of the Imagine Wesley school website. This year, she helped the PTA send out email communications and our first edition of a paper newsletter. She also manages the Constant Contact account and email distribution lists.

Amy has maintained good relationships with the governing structures at school: the Governing Board, School Advisory Council, and the administration. She has also served as Secretary of the PTA for the current school year.

Her goals as VP of Communications are to:

- Build a team of parent volunteer "journalists" who write articles for PTA news.
- Work with parent volunteers to create a blog for the IWIA PTA that can be easily maintained.
- Continuing to use Constant Contact for email reminders and updates.
- Publishing regular paper newsletters and calendars for IWIA families.
- Include feature articles written by IWIA students in the paper newsletter.
- Form a joint team of Middle Years students, faculty, and volunteer parents to create and publish the school yearbook.
- Provide regular summary updates to the other leadership teams at IWIA: the Governing Board, School Advisory Council, and the administration

Angela Russell

Nominee, VP Membership

Angela Russell brings to the PTA years of skills developed from her professional background in event planning, membership coordination, recruitment, and budget and client management. Her goals for the PTA are to enhance membership by developing creative ways to encourage parent and teacher involvement in PTA activities and increasing awareness of the PTA's goals and objectives.

Elaine Banks
Nominee, VP Auction

Elaine Banks Brings a wealth of knowledge and experience gained from her participation in successfully organizing eight previous school auctions including three at IWIA. She hopes to organize strong committees that will raise greater sums of money for the benefit of the school.

Dymeka Harrison
Nominee, Secretary of the PTA

Dymeka Harrison brings to the PTA the professional skills and experience that have helped to develop her strong written and verbal communication skills, strong organizational skills, team-based project expertise, and successful implementation of policy and procedure. Her impeccable, results oriented drive and initiative motivates her to serve in any capacity for the betterment of Imagine Wesley. As Secretary of the PTA, Dymeka's goals would be to create more transparency of PTA proceedings. As a means to bridge gaps, she plans to help foster effective communication between the school administration, IWIA Board, parents, teachers and students. Dymeka plans to utilize her tenure as Secretary to assist committees to reach the goals that have been set by the board and parents. She strongly believes that IWIA can become a great institution through the effective communication and presentation of the school's strengths and challenges.

Darolyn McConnell

Nominee, PTA Teacher representative.

Darolyn McConnell is a First Grade girl's teacher at IWIA and current acting Teacher Representative for the PTA.
